International Students Looking for Work In Canada

Transitioning into a new culture can bring with it both excitement and challenges, and navigating Canadian cultural norms and expectations with finding a job and being in the workplace is no exception. Are you looking for a job in Canada but are not sure where to begin? As an international student, there are many ways Career Services can help and support you with your career journey in Canada!

- Online Resources
  - mySuccess (accessible through Carleton Central) is our online portal that contains resources for all Carleton students and alumni. Here you can find:
    - Tip Sheets to learn more about resumés, cover letters, interviews, job searching, networking, career fairs and more!
    - Workshop/Event Calendar for a listing of networking events and employer information sessions that will help you meet employers in your field.
    - Job postings - browse through on and off campus job postings employers posted specifically for Carleton students/alumni to see.

- In-person
  - Drop-in Career Services Monday to Friday from 8:30am-4:30pm (excluding holidays) and meet with one of our staff to help you gain more information about the job search process, how to build your resume for a job in Canada, and to begin answering your career questions.
  - We also have 50-minute Career Counselling sessions for a more in-depth discussion about career-related questions or concerns.

- In a group
  - We offer a workshop series titled, “I want a job in Canada. Where do I start?” specifically designed to help international students learn about working in Canada! This workshop series is offered every year early in the Fall and Winter terms. Below is a list of the topics discussed in this workshop series:
    - Session 1: How to effectively begin your job search in Canada
    - Session 2: Canadian workplace culture
    - Session 3: Introduction to the Canadian hiring process
    - Session 4: What to expect in a job interview
    - Session 5: Transitioning into the Canadian workplace
  - You can also drop-in the office to discuss any of the above topics, too!
